Camp Dixie

Letter From The Rector

God sends good news to the unworthy and the broken and He uses broken, unworthy messengers.

This broken, unworthy messenger is very honored to serve as Rector for NCPP #95 and I thank God and the Fourth Day Community for this opportunity. The role of Rector hasn't come naturally to me by any means, but I'm amazed at how 'carried' and sustained I've felt because of your steadfast prayers. It has been a very humbling experience and a beautiful blessing in my life, filled with memories I will cherish for a lifetime.

God has called together an amazing team with a great mix of experienced and new servants, along with some who have not served in a while. The power of prayer and the constant presence of the Holy Spirit have been evident throughout our team meetings.

2 Corinthians 12:9 is the scripture for the weekend: "My Grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness."

It is in the death and resurrection of Jesus that God's paradox of power in weakness is realized in its most explicit form.

Paul makes clear that suffering and humiliation are not merely necessary costs of ministry, but the very means by which the gospel is spread. He makes plain his weaknesses and identifies them as proof of God's grace and God's power.

Our thorns and our problems are never too big for so great a God. His Grace is the last word in every human situation and that is our Christian witness to the world!

We can affirm that when we are weak, we are strong if our eyes are upon the One who has promised to be with us always, to be our best friend.

The Fourth Day Community does so much to make every weekend extraordinarily Grace-filled. It is very meaningful to know that we can count on each of you to sponsor guests, to pray for us, to send palanca, to participate in the Send-off, and to bless us with your presence at the Serenade, Clausura, and Ultreya. Your sacrificial love and support help make it possible for us to share God's Grace through Pilgrimage.

We can be absolutely certain as we join together as a Fourth Day Community for weekend #95, that The Power - made perfect in weakness - is here to arouse our faith, to accelerate our hope, and to help us put God's love into action.

My brothers and sisters, God loves you and so do I!

Ultreya,
Lauren
