Devotions: Rose Gaiser read from "Day by Day with Billy Graham"

Prayer Requests: Included were prayer requests for Madeline Peacock's recovery, Judy Fore-under the weather, Mary Nelle Smith-testing, Robin's father in law-knee surgery, Westminster Presbyterian Church's upcoming renewal weekend, NCPP's upcoming weekends and Lenwood Collins-family wedding.

Secretary's report: The minutes of the May 3, 2001 meeting were approved as distributed.

Treasurer's report: No Report

Rector reports: #44 Linda Mason distributed the team list. The head cha meeting has been held and first team meeting will be September 8. She showed copies of the logo and the accompanying verse for the weekend of Psalm 59:17.

#45 Mary Beck has a volunteer weekend with more volunteers than she needs. The verse for the weekend is Romans 12:2b

Committee Reports

Leaders: Observing rectors for #44-Lew Thomas, #45-Brad Brown, #46-Cathy Cochran, #47-Marsha Percivil. Motion to approve passed with no discussion.

Operations: Lenwood stated the climate controlled storage unit has been procured at Morning Star Storage on Friendly Avenue. Crucifix was repacked for protection.

Camp Hanes will be increasing rates in 2002. Our reservations during 2002 will maintain the 2001 rates.

There was discussion on the liability policy that Tim Gupton has and Jim Mason will get details.

Serenade: No Report

Music: Judy, per email, is continuing to work on the music playbooks and they will be ready for October/November weekends. ARISE music books are ready.

Pastors: No report. Discussion included that weekend #45 in November needs another pastor. Jim Mason led discussion on offering to pay the weekend expenses for the Pastors when they serve as Pastors on the weekend, not other positions. Motion made by Wilson Davis, 2nd by Rose Gaiser, passed unanimously.

Newsletter (W): Wilson Davis reported the late summer newsletter will be mailed by September. This edition gave an opportunity to expand with stories of the beginning of Cursillo / Pilgrimage, the number of 4th Day members and other stories. He suggested keeping up with births, marriages, etc in the newsletter or on the Website. Distributed a list of 4th Day for address updates.

A database is in the works and will add the guests' home church. Robin Jr already has the team info from #37 forward in ACCESS.

Website: Leslie Johnson volunteered to keep the website up to date.

Reunion: Remember to give any changes to Cindi.

Fourth Day: Ultreya held on June 9th with over 100 participating.
4th Day books will be in the packets.

#44 Ultreya will be held November 3rd at Faith Presbyterian in Greensboro, 6:00pm-9:00pm.

Jim led discussion on having monthly a Ultreya and including East and West. Suggestions led to beginning on January 12, 2002 (second Saturday evening) at Cameron Presbyterian Church (central location) at 5:30pm for covered dish dinner with worship, music and communion. All were asked to think about the plans and we will discuss further next month.

Registrar: (East) – 3 guests for November

Palanca: Brian reported the next two prayer banners would be beginning next week.

Historian: No Report

Vice President: No Report

Old Business

Team Manual: Motion was made and passed for NCPP to sell the updated Team Manual for $7.00 per copy.

Fourth Day Retreat: Robin Britt Sr. proposed we have input from East / West for the needs of implementing an Inward/Outward journey in a retreat setting with communion, Community and Ministry in the spring/summer '02. We will discuss details after the upcoming 2 weekends.

Robin Britt Jr's discussed the mission of his company Nexus Journey is to help communities plug into the services available such as the planning of such a retreat.

Weekend Financial Policy: Motion to approve by Walter Davis and 2nd by Lynn Miller passed unanimously. Discussion included the ability to amend and approve as needed. Clarified that on G-the amount is the total expenditures for head chas and operations. This policy and the dollar numbers will develop better as we progress and follow the expenditures.

New Business
