Letter from the Rector of NCPP #121

Dear NCPP 4th day,

What a blessing this journey has been for me. Being called to be rector is an honor and it has been one of the most exciting times I have ever walked through. As I have been praying and studying in my preparations for NCPP #121 the Lord has revealed to me a wonderful scripture for this special time. It comes from Ephesians chapter 2. Early on in my prayer time I had decided on a scripture for NCPP 121 and then as usual God revealed to me that HE had something better in store for all of us. My original verse was Ephesian 2:8, but after prayerfully preparing myself and being obedient to the calling, God revealed that it was actually going to be Ephesians 2:10 "For we are God's handiwork, created in Christ Jesus to do good works, which God prepared in advance for us to do".

After the further studying of this passage, I found that several translations refer to us as God's masterpiece or work of art instead of handiwork. I love the thoughts of us being His works of art or a masterpiece. No greater artist has ever lived and each piece of art is priceless. Also I believe we have a responsibility to bear fruit, this is part of the scripture for the weekend. Doing the good works that He planned for us to do.

We all face struggles or valleys even in our walk with our Lord. During the middle of my preparations for NCPP #121 my earthly father Bill Gaddy was hospitalized with a brain bleed and had brain surgery. He was in the hospital for 38 days and ended up with pneumonia and passed away on July 17th just a week and half before my head cha meeting. I believe that God used my time of preparation during the time leading up to this to have me ready to face this difficult time. Watching my dad those last few weeks and how well prepared he was and where his faith was, was absolutely a sign from God. I believe God was using my dad to teach me and to show me just how well He prepares each of us to do the work he has prepared for us, work we had better be doing. Just hearing story after story of how Bill Gaddy had touched so many lives revealed to me that he had been doing that good work this scripture is talking about. These good works are: kindness, love, mercy, compassion, help to one another, meeting one another's needs. These are the things my dad was doing and wow what an impact he had in doing so. This is what God expects from each of us.

Please continue to pray for the team and guest of NCPP #121 as we prepare ourselves for whatever God has in store for us. May we all learn to be obedient to the scripture and to what our calling is.

Also be a support to the weekend in other ways like signing up for the prayer banner, come to the serenade, sponsor a guest or come be a part of the 4th day by helping pack up on Sunday September 22nd.

God loves you so very much and so do I,
Todd Gaddy

What information is on the website?

- Online directory of the entire NC 4th day including addresses and phone numbers
- Upcoming weekend dates, locations, and Rectors
- Newsletters from most weekends
- Logos from most weekends
- Current guest and sponsor applications
- A link to the prayer banner website
- A NCPP brochure for potential guests
- And much more.....

Please use this newsletter as your trigger to verify that YOUR contact information is still current in the online directory! Why? So your brothers, sisters, and future Rectors can contact you! Also, make sure your reunion sisters and brothers received their newsletter, if not ask them to update their e-mail address!

A Note From the Registrars:

Brothers and Sisters,

The lifeblood of the Pilgrimage movement is new guests. For the movement to survive, we need each of you to prayerfully and thoughtfully consider guests to sponsor for each and every weekend. Everyone has questions about what's involved with a weekend, but please tell your potential guests that the reason you do not want to share everything with them is so the special surprises will actually be a surprise! Please do tell them there will be talks by both lay leaders and clergy, small and large group activities, as well as worship, singing, and sharing. If you can remember back to the Total Security in the 4th Day talk on your weekend, we're asked not to mention activities such as the Service for Wholeness and Healing, Prayer Banner, Serenade, etc. to potential guests. Your responsibilities to the guests you sponsor should include providing or arranging transportation to and from camp for the weekend, as well as the Ultreya, arranging for (and delivering to camp) the special palanca from family and friends, and attending the Serenade. Please do not deliver your guest to camp on an empty stomach, as the weekend begins after the dinner hour.

If, after prayer, your guest agrees to attend the weekend, a completed guest application should be mailed to the Registrar in the appropriate NCPP conference. The MOST CURRENT Registrar is listed on the sponsor application found on the ncpilgrimage.org website. If you use an old form that's okay, but please send it to the Registrar listed on the most current form. A guest is NOT considered to be registered without 1) a completed guest application, 2) a completed sponsor application, and 3) partial payment. While it is great to get the medical form with the application also, the medical form can be completed and turned in anytime before the weekend begins.

The movement does not intend for the fees to keep anyone from attending a weekend; therefore, scholarships are available. However, since we all should be good stewards of the movement's funds, please do not freely offer scholarships unless there truly is a need. Please ask your guest if they are able to pay at least a portion of their fees and discuss the situation with the Registrar or the Head Cha for the weekend if a scholarship is required. If everyone is a good steward, the movement will not only survive, but also thrive!

While it's a little late to sponsor a guest for Weekend #121, please be praying about guests for future weekends. The future weekends and dates are listed on the ncpilgrimage.org website along with other information you might need!

God loves sponsors and so do we!

Rocky and Cindi Hoffner
