From the Rector:

It seems a lifetime ago when I received that call asking me to be Rector in October. I instantly accepted. My personality type is that of an organizer and detail person. Previous Rectors have all told me I would quickly find out WHO was really in charge of this weekend. Pilgrimage has taught me to let go, to trust, and to listen. I decided I would not solicit the majority of team members; and, in fact, solicited 75 who applied for the team. This was truly team chosen by God and approached the weekend with such enthusiasm and a servant spirit. Almost one fourth of the team had never served on a team previously. Five of the nine lay speakers were giving their first talk. Five of the Head Chas had never served in a Pilgrimage Leadership role. This was truly God's team and I watched with amazement at how connected we were from the first team meeting through churches, reunion groups, and weekends when we were guests. Team members shared in their introductions how other team members had touched them on their weekend and created a desire to give back and serve. Each speaker dug down deep into their life experiences and their talks with strongly influence the guests. We bonded and became a community of faith. Our fires are lit and we look with excitement to the guests who will attend NCPP #66. Praise be to God.

Please continue with your prayers, bring your palanca, and we hope to see you at the Serenade.

God Loves you and so do I

Fourth Day Retreat

The next 4th Day Retreat will be October 28-30 (Fri-Sun) at Camp Hanes. It is open to everyone in the 4th Day on a first-come, first-served basis until all available space is filled. Registration is $97 and is open online at www.4thdayjourney.org. You can also download a paper registration at the site if you'd prefer.

The 4th Day Retreat is a ministry of space. Space where we are free from any intensity or busyness that may preoccupy our lives; where we can stop, rest, and reconnect with the Holy Spirit and with one another. Filled with the Spirit, we are free to sing our own song, speak our own language, dance our own dance, and free also to leave to follow our own call.

Here you will find prayer, communion, laughter, music, worship, and ministry, all in the midst of rich Christian community. Bathed in prayer and infused with the beauty of the created world, this space is a ripe environment for deepening your love affair with the Lord.

This is not an invitation to adopt a certain lifestyle, but the gift of a chance for the Spirit to show you your own.

More information is available at www.4thdayjourney.org.

HOW DID MPP # 1 COME ABOUT?

After we moved north in Oct. 2000, we returned yearly to serve on NCPP weekends sometimes bringing Michigan guests with us. Each time our NC friends promised that “some day” they would come north and help us start a pilgrimage in western Michigan. We didn’t worry about it because “some day” was a long time away.

Following the Feb. 2004 weekend we left NC with the usual promise. In March, Russ Reighley called to say the Leadership Council had voted to expand into Michigan and we needed to find a camp. ‘Some Day’ was here!

We found Camp Henry fairly quickly and then looked at each other and said: “ We can’t do this”. Apparently GOD was listening.

We soon got an e-mail from a stranger, John Day. Jim Mason had told him we were starting a pilgrimage group in Michigan. John had attended weekend # 7 at Camp Hanes.

Since then he had moved to the Atlanta area and had been involved in a number of other weekends including new communities. He offered to help in Michigan. (Last fall he relocated to MI.)

In June we went to a summer church service at Camp Henry and met Scott Crane, the new program director. Scott had recently finished seminary and had attended and served on Presbyterian Pilgrimage weekends in Virginia. He wanted to help a group start in Michigan.

By late July seven of us, including John Day from GA, met to discuss moving forward, ready or not. We made a list of possible guests and knew we would need more local team help.

We contacted an Emmaus couple we had met two years ago and invited them out for breakfast and a chance to get involved in Pilgrimage. They were interested. Later, we contacted a DeColores couple and they too offered to help.

We knew providing a serenade would be a big challenge. Gayle had a friend from BSF whose son was a Methodist minister in a town near Camp Henry, and who serves with a DeColores group in the Muskegon area. He put us in touch with their church’s reunion group. The West Shore DeColores group did indeed provide our serenade and are booked for this November.

Jim Mason & Russ Reighley came to Michigan in September to hold an exploratory meeting at Camp Henry. Jim and Russ approved of Camp Henry and convinced our little band of Michigan pilgrims that we could provide a pilgrimage weekend and promised plenty of help from North Carolina.

We continued to meet monthly to prepare for the April event. Each of us was paired as a co-head cha with a counterpart from North Carolina. We were very excited when the bus rolled in from NC late Monday night, April 25. We had three days to turn Camp Henry into a Pilgrimage site and three days to become one team.

We were blessed to become one big, caring family and more than ready to welcome 27 guests.

There were 58 team members. 13 were from Michigan: (consisting of 8 with NCPP background, 1 DeColores, 1 VA Presbyterian Pilgrimage & 3 Emmaus).

There were 2 from Chicago, and 1 each from PA, TN, TX, and VA. The help from NC was 39 strong. The promise had been kept, “Some Day” fulfilled.
