From the Rector:

Dear 4th Day Community,

As I have prepared for NCPP #78, I have been in constant prayer for the guests, team and the 4th Day Community. I have chosen Psalm 118:24 as the scripture for the weekend. "This is the day the Lord has made, let us rejoice and be glad in it."

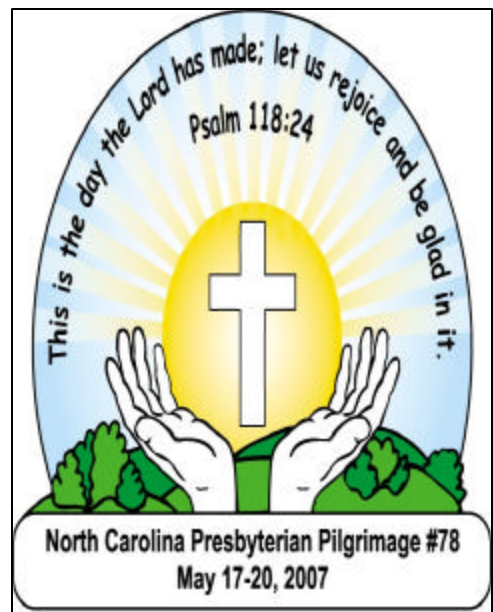

Pilgrimage is a way for us to celebrate the love of Jesus Christ and give thanks. I want to thank the 4th day community for your prayers and ask that you continue to pray for the May weekend. Please visit the web site and sign up to pray!! As you all know, seeing a familiar name on the prayer (continued to page 2)

We are changing to e-mailed newsletter

This is the last edition of the NCPP News that will go to all Pilgrims on the current mailing list. A new list will be compiled during the summer, containing only those names and addresses of Pilgrims who have explicitly requested delivery by U. S. Mail. Such requests may be made by contacting Jim Mason at 1509 Overbrook Court, High Point, NC. 27262 or via e-mail at masonjim@aol.com

To save money on printing and mailing costs, beginning this fall we are changing to an e-mailed newsletter, except as noted above. The Leadership Council feels U. S. Mail distribution should be limited to those who need or really want to receive the NCCP News through the mail. Our e-mailed newsletter will be sent to those current e-mail addresses that are posted on our NC Presbyterian Pilgrimage Web site.

It is now URGENT that you check our www.ncpilgrimage.org web site and ensure that your e-mail address (and other information) is up to date. It is your responsibility to keep your information current on the web site. See page 3 for step-by-step instructions on how to do this.

Editor's Note:

The above list contains guests who had registered for the Pilgrimage through May 1. This newsletter will be delivered by U. S. mail for those who opted for that mode of delivery. In addition, if you opted for e-mail delivery, you will receive this newsletter, plus one with an updated guest list that will go out the week of May 14 prior to the May 17-20 Pilgrimage.

(The on-line data base may be accessed under the Pilgrimage Web Site (www.ncpilgrimage.org) under the heading of Fourth Day Community. Note: Each Pilgrim is responsible for updating his or her own information. In particular, be sure to update your e-mail address. Set page 3 for a step-by-step guide of how to do this.

Items needed: No items needed.

Chapel: Mack Dagenhart
336-768-8742

Items needed. No items needed

Here's how to update your info on our Web Site

1. Go to <http://www.ncpilgrimage.org>
2. Click on "Fourth Day Community"
3. Under "People" click on "Online Directory"
4. Read the info on that page and click on "go to online directory" at the bottom of the page
5. Fill in the Security Window form to access the search page
6. Type in your name and click on "Search."
7. That will display a list of Pilgrims, and you can click on your name to display the data in the directory about you
8. Verify that your information is correct. In particular, check your e-mail address. If your information is not correct, click on "Modify"
9. On the next page, you may type in new information in the appropriate boxes. (DO NOT RELY ON THIS TO SET YOUR NEWS DISTRIBUTION TO "PAPER" AT THIS TIME. All "paper" fields will be cleared this summer and the "paper" mailing list will be started over, using only the names that are received by Jim Mason via mail or e-mail)
10. Click on "Save." (Now that you have updated your e-mail address and other info, urge your friends to do likewise.)
